DAI COURSE FOR TEACHERS

The course will be presented by a team of practising teachers and psychologists.

The aims of the course are:

- a) to provide an understanding of the nature of dyslexia, the difficulties in language processing experienced by persons with dyslexia, and the practical implications of these for classroom and teaching practice.
- b) to provide course participants with knowledge and skills relevant to assessment and intervention, suitable for pupils and students who have dyslexia.

Topics covered will include:

- the history of dyslexia
- causal theories
- what does it mean to have dyslexia
- why reading is difficult
- recognising indicators in the classroom
- screening and assessment
- interpreting psycho-educational assessment reports
- implementing recommendations
- teaching phonics
- teaching reading comprehension skills
- spelling
- the writing process
- creating an inclusive classroom environment
- co-existing conditions
- assistive technology and IT
- dyslexia and maths

In addition, information with regard to suitable teaching, screening and testing materials will be available to view, as well as recommendations for further reading.

At the end of the course a participant will:

- ✓ Have an understanding of the possible causes of dyslexia.
- ✓ Be able to identify in a pupil/student learning behaviours which are consistent with dyslexia.
- ✓ Have an understanding of assessment and diagnostic reports.
- ✓ Have knowledge of appropriate methodologies and strategies for intervention.
- ✓ Support the child who has dyslexia in the general classroom.

The DAI course certificate will be awarded upon successful completion of the course. The criterion for successful completion includes full attendance.

Serving teachers should note that financial assistance may be available through the Local Initiatives Scheme of the Special Education Support Service. Application forms can be downloaded from the SESS website (www.sess.ie). Teachers pay DAI, and then may be able to claim back some financial assistance from SESS.
